Navigating the Changing Landscape of Customs and Trade

Deloitte Academy | 22 May 2025

22 May 2025 | 13:00 – 18:00

Live event | Free of charge

We are pleased to invite you to our brand-new Antwerp offices for an exclusive seminar for logistics and customs-clearance service providers.

Why participate?

The event aims to bring together industry professionals to check in with our topical experts to gain insights in the regulatory changes and challenges that define the fast-moving world of customs and trade. At the same time it offers a platform for customs and logistics service providers to engage in live roundtable discussions on how the sector is adapting to these new changes and to discover practical solutions to as well as positions take on common customs challenges.

Additionally, the event will offer participants the opportunity to reconnect and network with industry peers and Deloitte contacts in the enjoyable setting of our new Antwerp offices at the Keyserlei.

Topics covered will among others include Customs regulations, VAT challenges, sustainability requirements, export control and sanctions.
